

Restaurant Reviews

Restaurant Xred have too many customers and they sell too many meals every day. That is why it increases the number of meals and service types for customers and it attracts the people. But the increase of the customers make it hard to know customer satisfaction. Xred's main goal is customer satisfaction. So they made a survey about the service and meals. Now, they want to easily know that customer reviews are positive or negative.